SECTION 1

Your role at a glance

IN SHORT

When the recruiter hands shortlisted candidates to your unit for a first interview, your Factory HR runs it and decides who goes through. In a unit with a Factory HR Head, those finalists come to you before the Corporate Recruiter sees them. You approve them for the second interview, return them to Factory HR with a note, or reject them.

Like Factory HR, you can also send CVs collected locally to the recruiter once a job in your unit is posted.

WHAT YOU DO

- Approve first-interview finalists, singly or in bulk — in the app or straight from the email
- Return a finalist to Factory HR with a note
- Reject a finalist, with a reason
- Send locally collected CVs to the recruiter

WHAT YOU DO NOT DO

- Run the first interview (Factory HR does)
- Schedule the second interview (the recruiter does)
- See the recruiter's full pipeline

WHAT STARTS YOUR WORK

An email and a notification: "Candidate awaiting your approval" — one per send, however many candidates it carries.

The Corporate Recruiter (approved finalists) or Factory HR (returned ones).

SECTION 2

Access and signing in

2.1 How you get the role

The Factory HR Head role is granted per unit by a super user on Access Control. A unit without a Factory HR Head simply skips this approval: Factory HR's "Yes" sends the candidate straight to the recruiter.

2.2 Signing in

1. Open the system
   Go to https://talenthub.dbl-group.com in Chrome, Edge or another current browser, on a computer or a phone.
2. Sign in
   Enter your DBL email address and password, then Sign in. Tick Remember me on your own device to keep your email filled in; your browser can save the password.
3. First sign-in or after a reset
   Your temporary password is your employee code. The system then asks you to choose your own password of 6 to 12 characters before you can continue.

- Forgot your password? Select Forgot password? on the sign-in page. A 6-digit code is emailed to you; it is valid for 10 minutes. Enter it, then set a new password. Every other session is signed out.
- Locked out? After 5 wrong passwords the account is locked for 15 minutes. A super user can also reset your password to your employee code.
- Two-factor authentication (recommended) is switched on under Account settings › Security — use an authenticator app or a code sent by email.
- Sessions last 24 hours; after that you sign in again. Signing out on one device does not sign you out anywhere else.

> No role, no sign-in
> The system lets a person sign in only while they hold at least one role. If you are told your account is not enabled for sign-in, ask Head of Talent Acquisition or a super user to check your access.

2.3 What you will see

My Work Candidate Approvals
Your queue of finalists waiting for a decision (called First Interview Approvals before October 2026).

Recruitment Requisitions
Posted requisitions in your unit, where you can send CVs.

Overview Dashboard
Your open work at a glance.

My Work My Interviews
Interviews where you sit on the panel.

SECTION 3

Approving first-interview finalists

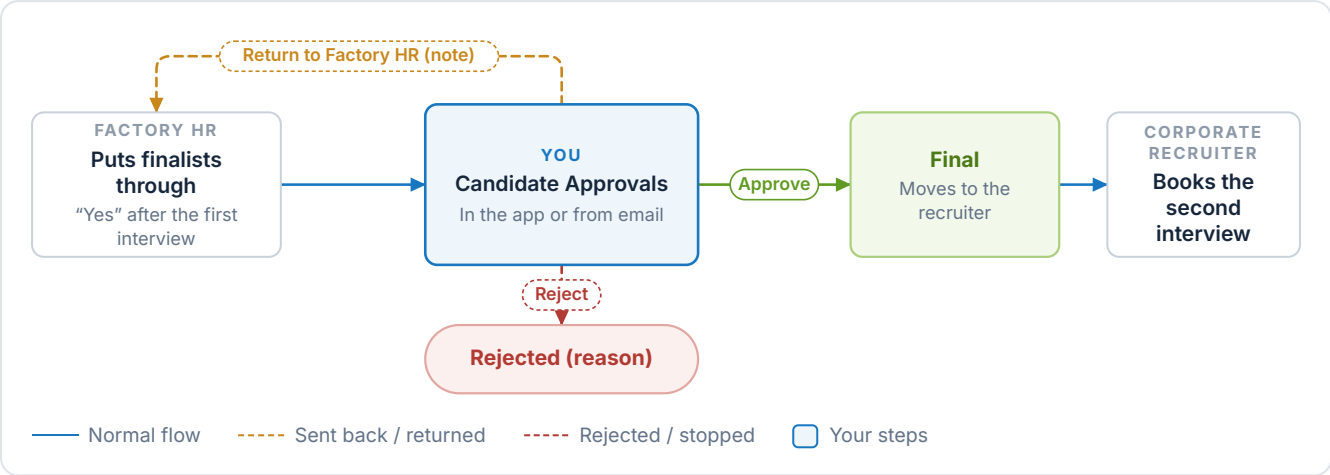

Figure 1. Your decision on each finalist. The recruiter's own first interviews — ones not handed to a factory — never come to you.

3.1 What you see for each candidate

- The candidate, the post, the unit and the requisition, with a link to the CV.
- When they were interviewed, the panel's average score, each panelist's marks and each panelist's recommendation — Select, Reject or Talent Pool.
- Their present salary and expected salary, where known.

3.2 Deciding

1. Open the queue

   Go to My Work › Candidate Approvals, or select the button in the email (see 3.3). Search by name, designation, unit or requisition.

2. Approve

   Approve on a row ("send for the second interview"), or tick several and select Approve N. The candidate moves to Final, the recruiter is told to book the second interview, and Factory HR is informed.

3. Return

   Return to Factory HR sends the candidate back with your note — for example, to re-check a mark. Factory HR then resends or rejects. A note is required.

4. Reject

   Reject ends the candidate's application at your stage. A reason is required; it is recorded and shown to everyone downstream.

3.3 Deciding from the email

Each time Factory HR puts candidates through, you receive one email: a single candidate, or every candidate of that batch in one table — name, post, interview score and what the panel recommends. Its button opens the same candidates on a page of their own, with no sign-in.

1. Open the email
   Select Review and approve (for a batch, Review and approve N candidates).
2. Decide each one
   Use Approve, Reject or Return to Factory HR on a candidate, exactly as in the app. View interview shows the panel's marks and comments; the CV opens from the row.
3. Or approve them all
   Approve all N approves every candidate still waiting; tick some to approve, return or reject only those.

About the link

- It is personal to you and works for 14 days; after that, use Candidate Approvals in the app.
- Nothing is decided by opening the email — only by a button on the page — so a mail scanner checking the link changes nothing.
- A candidate another Factory HR Head has already decided shows that decision instead of the buttons.
- Decisions made here are the same as in the app: the same notices go to Factory HR and the recruiter.
- The email comes while Email notifications is on under Account settings › Notifications; with it off, the bell still tells you.

While a finalist is with you

The first interview stays locked: Factory HR cannot give a second verdict and the recruiter cannot take the candidate back until you decide.

SECTION 4

Sending CVs to the recruiter

Once the recruiter publishes a job in your unit, its Profile & Posting tab offers you the Send CVs to the recruiter panel, with the public job link. Drop one PDF or up to 30, check the names, choose the source (Employee Referral asks for the referring employee) and select Send CVs. They land in the recruiter's pipeline as Applied, marked Factory HR Head · your name.

SECTION 5

Notifications

Everything that needs your attention arrives in three ways. The bell at the top right shows a count and a list; a new notification also plays a short sound and appears briefly on screen, and open pages refresh themselves — there is no need to reload. If Email notifications is on under Account settings › Notifications, the same notification is emailed to you.

Each morning the system also sends a reminder to anyone who has a requisition waiting on their approval or interview marks still to submit.

- A candidate (or a batch of candidates) is awaiting your approval — also emailed, with the link to decide.
- A candidate you returned has been resent by Factory HR.

SECTION 6

Questions and answers

Q Can I change a decision after approving?

No. Once approved, the candidate is with the recruiter for the second interview. Speak to the recruiter if something has come to light.

Q Why do some first interviews never reach me?

Only first interviews handed to your unit come to you. Interviews the recruiter runs directly do not.

Q Can I approve candidates from another unit?

No. The role is per unit; you see only your unit’s finalists.
