SECTION 1

Your role at a glance

IN SHORT

Each Requisition Raiser has an approval chain: a short, ordered list of named people. When a requisition reaches your level, you review it and decide — Approve, Reject or Need more info. Approving passes it to the next level; the last level is always Head of Talent Acquisition.

You only ever act on requisitions where you are named. Holding a role in a unit does not let you sign anyone else's level, and does not show you colleagues' requisitions.

WHAT YOU DO

- Review requisitions that reach your level
- Approve, reject, or ask the raiser for more information
- Correct details while the requisition is with you

WHAT YOU DO NOT DO

- Act before the levels ahead of you have signed
- Sign a level that is not yours
- Choose recruiters, sources or candidates

WHAT STARTS YOUR WORK

A notification that a requisition is waiting for your approval.

WHO YOU HAND OVER TO

The next level in the chain — or, if you are the last configured level, Head of Talent Acquisition.

Where you fit in the hiring lifecycle

PHASE 1
Manpower Requisition
- Raise the requisition
- Job analysis
- Approval chain
- CHRO / Board (if escalated)

PHASE 2
Sourcing & CV Collection
- CV sources & recruiter
- Role profile & job posting
- CVs arrive from all channels
- AI screening & shortlist

PHASE 3
Assessment & Interviews
- Screening tests
- First interview
- Factory HR Head approval
- Second / final interview

PHASE 4
Selection & Salary
- Panel evaluation
- Salary fixation
- Mark as selected
- Regret letters

PHASE 5
Pre-employment & Onboarding
- Documents & facilities
- Medical clearance
- Board approval & offer
- Verification & joining

SECTION 2

Access and signing in

2.1 How you get access

You are named as a level in a raiser's chain on Configuration › Approval Paths by Head of Talent Acquisition, the CHRO or a super user. Saving the chain grants you the Unit Approver role for that unit automatically — it lets you sign in and see the requisitions you are named on, and nothing more. SBU Heads and other office-holders are named the same way.

If you are removed from a role in Access Control, you are taken off every level of the chains in that unit. Requisitions already in flight keep the chain they started with.

SBU Heads hold their own role, granted in Access Control. Besides being named as approvers, they can maintain Unit Configuration — departments, sections and sanctioned seats — for their units.

2.2 Signing in

1. Open the system
   Go to https://talenthub.dbl-group.com in Chrome, Edge or another current browser, on a computer or a phone.
2. Sign in
   Enter your DBL email address and password, then Sign in. Tick Remember me on your own device to keep your email filled in; your browser can save the password.
3. First sign-in or after a reset
   Your temporary password is your employee code. The system then asks you to choose your own password of 6 to 12 characters before you can continue.

- Forgot your password? Select Forgot password? on the sign-in page. A 6-digit code is emailed to you; it is valid for 10 minutes. Enter it, then set a new password. Every other session is signed out.
- Locked out? After 5 wrong passwords the account is locked for 15 minutes. A super user can also reset your password to your employee code.
- Two-factor authentication (recommended) is switched on under Account settings › Security — use an authenticator app or a code sent by email.
- Sessions last 24 hours; after that you sign in again. Signing out on one device does not sign you out anywhere else.

> i No role, no sign-in
> The system lets a person sign in only while they hold at least one role. If you are told your account is not enabled for sign-in, ask Head of Talent Acquisition or a super user to check your access.

2.3 What you will see

Overview Dashboard
Awaiting Your Approval lists every requisition at your level.

Recruitment Requisitions
Requisitions you are named on, past and present.

Recruitment Organogram
Sanctioned, filled and vacant seats — useful when judging a request.

System Notifications
Everything waiting for you, with links.

SECTION 3

Reviewing and deciding

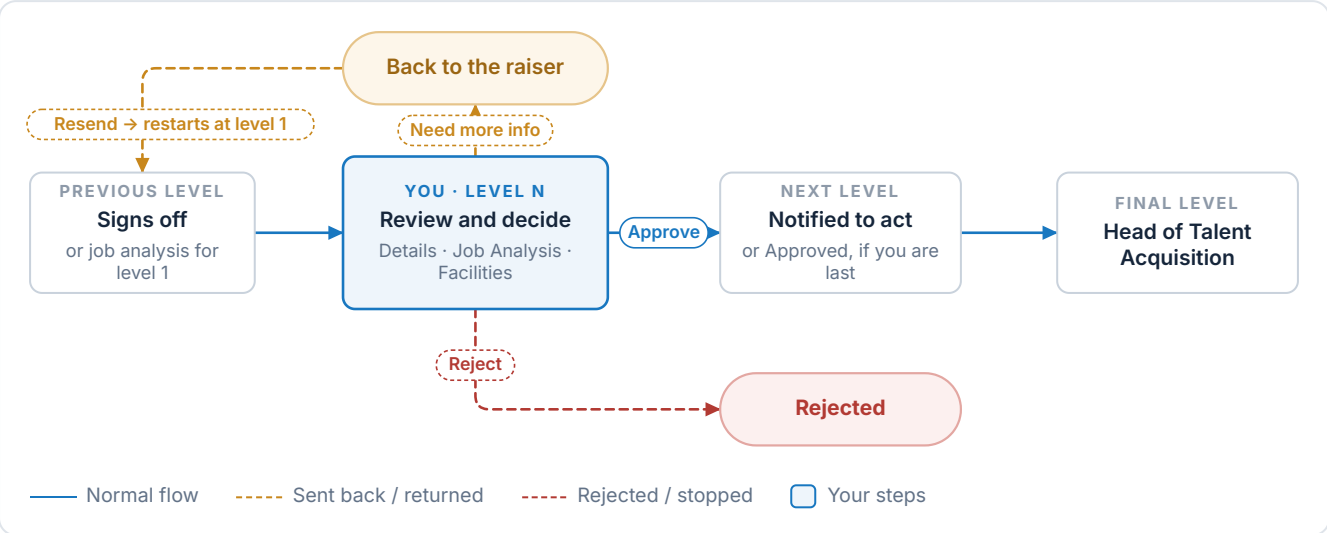

Figure 1. Your three decisions. Only the final level — Head of Talent Acquisition — can also send a requisition to the CHRO.

3.1 Before you decide

1. Open the requisition
   From the notification or the Dashboard's Awaiting Your Approval. It opens on the Approvals tab, which shows each level, who has signed, when, and their remarks.
2. Read section A
   The Details tab: unit, department, designation, requisition type (and who is being replaced), number of posts, place of posting, dates, priority and employment nature.
3. Read section B
   The Job Analysis tab: job description, education, experience and other requirements written by Factory HR, with the attached detailed job description.
4. Check the facilities
   Laptop or desktop, transport, dormitory and seating, as requested by the raiser. Transport and dormitory are always subject to availability.

3.2 Making the decision

Type a remark in the box, then choose:

Decision	What happens	Remark
Approve	Your level is signed. The next level is notified; if you were the last level, the requisition is approved and Talent Acquisition takes over.	Optional
Need more info	The requisition goes straight back to the raiser to amend. Sign-off pauses. When the raiser resends it, the chain restarts from level 1.	Required — it is the question the raiser answers

Decision	What happens	Remark
Reject	The requisition is closed with status Rejected. The raiser is notified.	Not enforced, but always give the reason

> Only you can sign your level
> Each configured level belongs to one named person. Nobody else can act on it — not even someone holding Head of Talent Acquisition globally — apart from a super user. While a requisition is back with the raiser, no later level can sign it either.

3.3 Correcting details while it is with you

While the requisition is pending at your level you can select Edit details and correct content fields — number of posts, place of posting, dates, priority, job grade, job description and the other section B fields. Every change is written into the requisition's history with your name. Editing does not change the chain.

3.4 Statuses

Status	What it means	Who holds it
Job Analysis	Raised; waiting for Factory HR to write section B — or returned to the raiser for changes.	Factory HR (or the raiser)
Pending Approval	In the approval chain. The Approvals tab shows the current level.	The named approver
Approved	Every level has signed. Talent Acquisition sets CV sources and a recruiter.	Head of Talent Acquisition
Profile Ready	The role profile for the advertisement has been saved.	Talent Acquisition / recruiter
Posted	Published on the DBL careers page; candidates are being collected and assessed.	Corporate Recruiter
Rejected	Turned down by an approver, with the reason recorded.	Closed

Notifications and reminders

Everything that needs your attention arrives in three ways. The bell at the top right shows a count and a list; a new notification also plays a short sound and appears briefly on screen, and open pages refresh themselves — there is no need to reload. If Email notifications is on under Account settings › Notifications, the same notification is emailed to you.

Each morning the system also sends a reminder to anyone who has a requisition waiting on their approval or interview marks still to submit.

- A requisition has reached your level ("… approval needed: REQ-… awaits your approval").

- A requisition that was sent back and resent reaches your level again — resending restarts the chain at level 1.
- A daily reminder while anything is waiting at your level.

SECTION 5

Questions and answers

Q I can see the requisition but there are no decision buttons.

It is not at your level yet — an earlier level has not signed — or it is with the raiser after “Need more info”. The Approvals tab shows exactly where it is.

Q Can I approve on behalf of a colleague who is away?

No. Each level is personal. If the chain needs to change for future requisitions, Head of Talent Acquisition updates Approval Paths; a super user can act on a stuck requisition.

Q Why did a requisition I already approved come back to me?

A later approver asked for more information and the raiser resent it. Resending restarts the chain from level 1 so that everyone signs the corrected version.

Q Can I change who approves after me?

No. Chains are configured on Approval Paths, per raiser and unit, and are copied onto each requisition when it is raised.

SECTION 6

Quick reference

A one-page summary you can print and keep beside you.

Requisition Approver — quick reference

FIND YOUR WORK

- Dashboard → Awaiting Your Approval
- Or the notification link
- Daily reminder while anything waits

DECIDE

- Approve — passes to the next level
- Need more info — remark required; back to raiser; restarts at level 1
- Reject — closes it; give the reason

REVIEW

- Details — section A (vacancy)
- Job Analysis — section B + attachments
- Approvals — who signed, when, remarks

GOOD TO KNOW

- Only you can sign your level
- Edit details while it is with you — logged
- Head of Talent Acquisition is always the last level
