SECTION 1

1 The journey at a glance

IN SHORT

Candidates never sign in. Everything they do happens on DBL's public pages and through personal links in the emails the system sends them: they apply on the careers page, follow their application with the status tracker, sit any online test, receive interview invitations, and — once selected — complete their joining documents, accept the offer and sign the Code of Conduct on their own onboarding portal.

SECTION 2

2 Finding a job and applying

2.1 The careers page

The DBL careers page lists every open position across DBL Group. Applicants can search by designation, unit or department and filter by unit. Each listing shows the designation, unit, department, place of posting, number of posts, a short summary and the closing date, with an Apply Now button. The same page is linked from the recruiter's social-media posts and job link.

2.2 The application

1. Fill in the form
   Full name, Email address, Mobile number, Expected salary (BDT) — written as a figure such as "40,000"; "Negotiable" is accepted as no answer — and the CV / Resume as a PDF.

2. Verify the email address
   On Submit, a 6-digit code is emailed to the address given. Entering it submits the application. The code lasts 10 minutes; after 5 wrong tries it is cancelled; a new code can be requested after 60 seconds, up to 5 an hour. A second application in the same sitting needs no new code.

3. Confirmation
   Application Submitted Successfully! shows the application ID (for example APP-2026-123) and the position. A confirmation email follows, with a View Application Status button.

Other ways in

- BDJobs: DBL can publish a vacancy on BDJobs; BDJobs sends its shortlisted applicants to DBL automatically.
- Employee referral: a referred candidate with an email address receives a letter telling them who referred them, and the referrer is thanked.
- Emailed or hand-delivered CVs: the recruitment team or a unit's HR adds them directly.

2.3 Tracking an application

Track Your Application (the Application Tracker) asks for the email address used to apply and lists every application from it, each with a simple progress line:

What the candidate sees	Meaning inside DBL
Applied	Received.

What the candidate sees	Meaning inside DBL
Shortlisted	Shortlisted by the recruiter (or by BDJobs or the AI screen).
Interview	An interview has been arranged.
Final Round	Through the first interview.
Selected	Chosen for the post.
Not Selected	The application was not progressed further.

SECTION 3

3 Tests and interviews

3.1 The online AI proficiency test

If the recruiter assigns it, the candidate is emailed a personal test link. Start Test begins the attempt — with a time limit if one was set. The test runs full-screen; leaving the tab or full-screen is recorded and the recruiter is told. It is marked automatically. Written and computer-literacy tests are sat in person.

3.2 Interview invitations

- The invitation email gives the post, the round, the date and time in Dhaka time (GMT+6), and either the Google Meet link (online) or the location and room (in person).
- The recruiter may also send a Google Calendar invitation.
- If an interview is rescheduled, the candidate is emailed the new and the old time.

3.3 If the application does not go forward

HR may send DBL's standard regret letter: "Dear ", naming the post, thanking them and linking to the careers page. It is sent by a person, never automatically, and only once.

SECTION 4

4 The onboarding portal

For selected candidates: one personal link, used from the first document to the signed Code of Conduct.

After selection, the recruiter sends the candidate the link to their Onboarding Portal, headed "Welcome to DBL Group". It works on a computer or a phone and needs no password.

4.1 Joining documents

Your documents is a list grouped into sections, one open at a time. Each slot says what is needed and whether it is required. Uploads may be PDF, JPG or PNG.

Section	Examples
Photographs	Passport photographs — checked automatically, and refused only when the system is confident the image is not a photograph of a face. Some photographs are also needed in hard copy.
Academic	SSC, HSC, graduation and post-graduation certificates and marksheets.
Professional & Training	Professional certifications (the candidate names each one) and training certificates.
Experience & Employment	Experience certificates and related employment papers.
Identity & Address	National ID and address documents. The four NID particulars — name, address, date of birth and number — are typed exactly as printed, because they go on the appointment letter and to payroll.
Tax & Salary	Tax and salary documents requested by HR.
Signature	An image of the candidate's signature, cropped to a 3:1 strip in the browser.

Each upload shows its status: Pending review, Verified or Rejected with HR's reason, so the candidate can upload a better copy. HR may also email a list of anything still outstanding.

4.2 The offer

1. The offer letter
   When the Board has approved the hire, HR sends the offer letter — a PDF on DBL's letterhead carrying the CHRO's signature — by email and on the portal.

2. Accept
   Accepting signs the letter with the signature already uploaded in the documents; nobody is asked for it twice. If none is on file, the candidate adds it there and then. A counter-signed copy is filed automatically. A scanned signed copy can also be uploaded.

3. Or decline
   Declining asks for a reason, which HR sees. A revised offer, if sent, clears the decline.

4.3 Code of Conduct

Near the end, HR sends DBL's Code of Conduct to the portal. The candidate reads it, ticks the acknowledgement and signs with their signature image. The completed form is filed with their records.

4.4 Appointment and joining

After final verification, the candidate receives the appointment letter — a PDF on the DBL letterhead carrying their NID particulars and the appointment date and time. IT then issues the work email, and the hire is complete.

SECTION 5

5 Emails a candidate receives

Moment	Email
Applying on the careers page	Email verification code; "application received" confirmation with the application ID.
Referred by an employee	A letter naming the referrer and the post.
Test assigned	The AI proficiency test link.
Interview arranged or moved	Invitation (and optional calendar invite); reschedule notice with new and old time.
Not taken forward	Regret letter, if HR sends one.
Selected	Onboarding portal link; any reminder of outstanding documents.
Medical test	Appointment for the pre-employment medical (date, time, venue).
Offer and appointment	Offer letter; later the appointment letter.

No-reply

Every system email ends: "This is an automated email generated by the DBL Group Recruitment System. Please do not reply to this email." Candidates should contact the recruitment team by the means given in the email or on the careers page.

SECTION 6

6 Privacy and security

- Applications require a verified email address, so nobody can apply in someone else's name.
- Portal, test and interview links are personal. Each opens only that candidate's own item.
- Joining documents and signed forms are stored in DBL's own Google Drive and opened through links issued by the system to people entitled to see them.

Candidate data is shared only with DBL Group recruitment, as the application page states.

SECTION 7

7 Questions applicants ask

Q I did not receive the verification code.

Check the spam folder and that the address is spelt correctly. A new code can be requested after 60 seconds.

Q Can I apply for more than one job?

Yes. Each application gets its own ID, and the tracker lists them all for the same email address.

Q The tracker shows “Not Selected”.

The application was not progressed further for that post. The candidate may apply for other open positions.

Q My document was rejected.

The portal shows HR’s reason. Upload a clearer or correct copy in the same slot.

Q My portal link does not open.

Ask the recruiter to resend it.
